Kevin B. Burk

Kevin B. Burk, author of the breakthrough book, The Relationship Handbook: How to Understand and Improve Every Relationship in Your Life, has been helping people worldwide to improve their relationships since 1996 through his Relationship Coaching practice. Burk is a member of the International Association of Coaches, and holds a Level IV Certification in Astrological Counseling from the National Council for Geocosmic Research. Burk is also a Certified Mediator of Workplace Conflict.

Burk conducts relationship seminars and workshops in cities across the United States. Topics include romantic relationships (How to Design and Create Your Ideal Romantic Relationship), personal relationships (Six Steps to Improve Every Relationship in Your Life), and professional relationships (How to Understand and Improve Your Professional Relationships; The Secrets of Success in Relationship Selling). The Relationship Workshops are available on CD through Burk's web site, www.EveryRelationship.com.

Burk draws his expertise in relationships from a wide range of sources. He studied psychology in college (Wesleyan University in Connecticut), but craved a more holistic and spiritual approach to healing. He moved to San Diego in 1989, and began his metaphysical studies. Astrology proved to be Burk's tool of choice, allowing him to combine a psychological foundation with a spiritual perspective.

Burk is the author of two books published by Llewellyn: Astrology: Understanding the Birth Chart (2001), and The Complete Node Book (2003). Astrology has received rave reviews, has been adopted as a textbook at Kepler University in Washington for the 2nd year Astrology Degree students, and is being translated into Russian.

Burk is a frequent guest on Michael Mercury's Sacramento-based radio show, "The Center of the Universe." He has taught astrology classes in San Diego, and has held astrology workshops for the San Diego Astrological Society, the National Council for Geocosmic Research (San Diego Chapter), the Oregon Association of Astrologers, Body, Mind and Soul Bookstore (Houston), Astrology Et Al Bookstore (Seattle), and the Learning Annex.
